The film is produced by Rajan Tiwari and Sangeeta Ahir for KNB productions and co-produced by Kumar Mangat Pathak under the banner of Balaji Motion Pictures. Music is composed by Amit Trivedi. The film has been shot in several locations including Ranchi, Jamshedpur, Chhattisgarh, Delhi, Benares / Varanasi, Kolkata and Mumbai. The trailer of the movie is launched on 3 April 2014 which marks the birth anniversary of the most influential author Premchand.

Netizens were divided on their opinions about the trailer for "Kambakht Ishq", with most disliking it. A large number of people rated it 4 or 5 stars but were criticised by others for rating it so highly. The major criticism was that the storyline was rather simplistic and has been done several times before. Another issue was that the trailer used a song from Sonakshi Sinha's album of the same name. One user from YouTube commented that "the trailer is a copy paste of a song from Sonakshi Sinha's film 3, which is a copy paste of a song from Premchand's bawdhist novel. This itself has been done already." The movie got its theatrical release on 14 October 2014. The movie had its worldwide premiere at the Mumbai Film Festival on 28 September 2014. The film was distributed worldwide by Fox Star Studios. The music has been composed by Amit Trivedi. The full soundtrack was released on 2 October 2014.

The movie opened to mixed reviews with the BBCI giving it 3 stars out of 5 mentioning "Ronit Roy and Amit Shah do justice to their roles; but unfortunately all that glitters is not gold." However it also mentions that ""Kambakht Ishq" has a freshness and kick to it, making it worth a watch". Rajeev Masand of News 18 India gave the movie 3 out of 5 saying "it's a well-intentioned film, and one that makes for an unusual viewing experience.
